

Online Training Workshops

AUGUST & SEPTEMBER 2022

Informative and inspiring courses for anyone who is concerned about their child's development, is in the process of having their child assessed or wants more insight and information about a diagnosis their child already has. Participants can start immediately with nurturing and manageable strategies that embrace your child's individuality and support them from where they are now to reaching their full potential.

Kerry Patterson

Behaviour Specialist specialising in Autism Spectrum Disorder and child development. 20 years of experience working with children, adults and their families and presenting training workshops for parents and professionals.
